May 20th

My dear Sir

Will you be so good as to give my best respects to the Bishop of Ohio, & my thanks for his obliging note
when he returns from Cambridge, as I am
leaving town in a few days I shall not have an opportunity of
thanking him myself

Lady Seymour's ~~letter~~ writes with me in-
but wishes for the success of his projects. She & my Mother beg to contribute £ each to the subscription - These sums with £ from myself I have taken the liberty of troubling you with - I am ashamed I did not send you the copy
of the letter before

I had given it to Miss Grimes with the note you were so good as to write to me. & I kept to ask her for it. — I am glad to see Mr Rogers's handsome donation. My mother wrote by my desire to tell him of the Bishop's admiration of his sermon & we sent him one of his books for his ~~last~~ answer to my mother. He seemed + because his donation was in consequence much gratified & with best respects to Mrs Marriott I remain dear Sir
Yours truly
